

Investing for Success

Under this agreement for 2020
Currumbin Community Special School will receive

$65,259*

This funding will be used to

- Improving reading and writing through improved understanding of and implementation of high impact teaching strategies, measured by literacy continuum data.

Our initiatives include

Instruction: Use this space to outline the evidence-based initiatives you will implement to address prioritized problems of practice and achieve your targets.

- Additional access to alternative and adaptive technology to increase student literacy.
- Professional learning for key personnel in peer observation and feedback.
- Building capability of staff to understand and implement high impact teaching strategies in balanced literacy approach.
- Building staff capability in alternative and augmentative communication strategies.

Our school will improve student outcomes by

Instruction: Use this space to list the actions and costs associated with your initiative/s.

Balanced Literacy and adaptive technology to ensure effective pedagogical practices <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Interactive panel for library Interactive panels for lower primary 	$3 800 $13 792
Building a collaborative culture of learning <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Teacher aide in library 	$35 667
Investment in coaching to create culture that promotes learning <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Peer observation and feedback – Growth Coaching international 	$5000
Expert teaching Team in communication for literacy <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Amanda Hartmann 	$7 000

Lucy Hirst
Principal
Currumbin Community Special School

Tony Cook
Director-General
Department of Education

Queensland Government